

Executive News – August 2022 - Update

SETT

Dave Pinnington has taken on the role of the Editor of the SETT and all articles should now be sent through to him for the October SETT

Cataloguer

Alan Shrives has taken over the role until the next AGM to replace Kelvin who has resigned from the post.

Auctioneer & Auctions in 2023

We still have a Vacancy for Club auctioneer and as there have been no volunteers to take on the role the 2022 floor auction has been canceled.

World Jamboree

Following contact with the WSJ and Korean Collectors Club they thanked us for our offer to support the WSJ and are happy that the Korean Club has this well managed and organized.

The IBC will produce a club badge for the event and further details will be posted as they are available

Next Generation Catalogue

This is an ongoing discussion and Alan is taking the lead to explore the various options to develop the Catalogue. Feedback has been received and noted from the open Exec meeting.

Club Clothing

We have selected an online supplier and we are hoping to have samples available for Gilwell reunion if possible. The supplier will take orders online and produce and ship to individual customer requirements
